TOURO SYNAGOGUE CHANUKAH PRE-PARTY
Near the end of the Ne’ila service that concludes Yom Kippur, as the sun filled our sanctuary with beautiful refractions from the stained glass, I felt overwhelmed with gratitude. The fall holiday cycle came to a close with Simchat Torah, where we read parashat V’zot Ha’bracha — the very last Torah portion titled “this is the blessing.” Standing on the bimah, surrounded by my community, those words have never felt truer.

This is the blessing.

As a community during the Yamim Noraim, the Days of Awe, we danced together to celebrate the new year with a Torah second line and the ruach of Panorama Jazz Band. We poured our hearts out singing together and praying together. We ate together and schmoozed together — Jason and I are grateful that so many of you celebrated the new year with us in our new home at our open house.

This is the blessing.

Rabbi Silverman delivered a sermon that made us laugh and learn and truly connect to our heritage, and he brought great spiritual depth to our holidays with the dozens of meditations he wrote for our holidays. Rabbi Bauman’s impassioned, courageous thought leadership was an inspiration. The Days of Awe are a time to challenge ourselves and grow, and our rabbinic leadership artfully guided us to a brilliant beginning of year 5780.

This is the blessing.

Our choir grew in strength and size this year, and their musicality and spirituality is a gift to me and a gift to Touro. I am grateful to Terry Maddox for his dedication to our musical endeavors, and to Rebecca Mark for her work on our music and meditation service. As a community we celebrated the holidays with the rich diversity of our Jewish musical tradition, from contemporary guitar-driven songs to melodies dating back hundreds of years.

This is the blessing.

Pirke Avot teaches, “Im ein kemach, ein Torah — If there is no flour, there is no Torah.” Our staff and lay leaders create the foundation upon which the sacred work we do at Touro is built. Kerry, Annahi, Donna, Lauren, Anna, Chanel and Roberto make all of this possible with their loving dedication. Our Board, past presidents, and greeters are pillars of our community who bless us with their wisdom and involvement.

For me and for Jason, being part of this kehillah k’doshah — this sacred community — is truly a blessing.

L’shalom,
Cantor Margolius
After the beauty of the High Holidays and the joyful experience of dedicating our new Torah, 5780 is well underway – and we have so much happening and so much to look forward to here at Touro Synagogue!

On November 1st, we had the honor of hosting the Henry S. Jacobs Camp 50th Anniversary Celebration for Shabbat services and a reunion dinner. Response to this event was enormous, and we enjoyed having generations of camp alumni in our synagogue as they celebrated the summer place that has meant so much to their families, and to so many in our community and throughout the region.

Mark your calendars and save the date for a wonderful evening on Friday, November 22, as we celebrate our very own Rabbi Katie Bauman and her installation as the new Senior Rabbi of this beautiful Touro community. Several special guests who have been important to Rabbi Bauman throughout her career will join us that evening, and we know you will want to join us as well. A celebratory reception honoring Rabbi Bauman will follow services.

In early December, I will attend the URJ Biennial in Chicago, along with several others from Touro, and Reform Jews from across North America and around the world. I look forward to learning and sharing ideas with fellow participants, and hearing from inspiring speakers and the leaders of the Reform Movement. I'm also thrilled to report that at the Biennial, Touro will be honored with a poster featuring our Krewe of VIPs Mardi Gras program. Earlier this summer, Touro received an Honorable Mention Belin Award for Audacious Hospitality from the URJ for the Krewe of VIPs, and we are so very pleased to be recognized for our commitment to inclusion that this extraordinary program has demonstrated so beautifully since 2010.

Last but certainly not least, be on the lookout for an invitation to Touro's exciting fundraiser, A Night at the Copa! coming up on January 25th. It will be an evening of comedy, music, delicious food and cocktails that you will not want to miss! To learn how you can be recognized on the invitation as Sponsor, Patron or Supporter, see page 13.

Looking forward to all that is to come over the coming months, and to connecting with you at Touro!

Lisa

No synagogue has just one single purpose -- especially Touro Synagogue. We are, simultaneously, a Beit Knesset (house of gathering) where we come together to celebrate and acknowledge the ups and downs of life; a Beit T’filah (house of worship) where, throughout the seasons of each year, we mark sacred moments and express our deepest longings through ancient blessings; and a Beit Midrash (house of study) where -- in the pursuit of expansive thought, transformative prayer, fearless engagement, and love -- we stimulate one another’s minds and hearts through lifelong Jewish study.

Each member of our clergy team is proud to present these course offerings for adults throughout the year. Some are presented as multi-week series of classes that build off each other, while others are offered quarterly, semi-annually, or even just one-off. No matter what you are drawn toward or intrigued by, or how frequently you choose to participate, we sincerely hope that you will consider joining us this year for your own personal enjoyment and enrichment.

Lifelong Learning opportunities at Touro Synagogue are designed to address the broadest possible spectrum of Jewish interests; each offering falls into one of three categories:

- FOUNDATIONS offer ground-level entry points to a wide range of Judaic topics for new and/or returning learners
- ELEVATIONS provide opportunities to strengthen one’s Jewish knowledge base with continued in-depth examinations of topics and ideas
- EXPLORATIONS allow for ongoing dialogue among learners who are drawn to similar Jewish topics through their shared personal interests and/or professional connections

Additionally, some of our offerings are “goal-oriented”, in that they culminate when learners are prepared for major milestones in their Jewish lives: Conversion, Adult B’nei Mitzvah, and recognition as a Touro Chai Scholar. More information about each can be found on pages 6-7.

Whether you are curious about a particular offering, interested in registering for something already, or simply seeking guidance on how to begin your own personal journey of Jewish lifelong learning, please don’t hesitate to reach out to Rabbi Bauman, Cantor Margolius, or Rabbi Silverman anytime.

SEE PAGES 6-7 FOR A LISTING OF OUR CURRENT LIFELONG LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES
HEBREW READING
TUESDAYS FROM 7-8PM, CANTOR MARGOLIUS
10/22, 10/29, 11/12, 11/19, 11/26, 12/3, 12/10, 12/17
Learn to read the Hebrew alphabet and vowels. This course is designed for beginners and those who would like to brush up on basic decoding skills. For those interested in chanting Torah or adult bar/bat mitzvah, this course will teach the reading skills necessary to take the cantillation class beginning in January. Missed the first session or two? Ask Cantor Margolius about how to jump in!

JEWISH SACRED TEXTS: TORAH, TANAKH, AND BEYOND
THURSDAYS FROM 7-8PM, RABBI SILVERMAN
10/24, 11/7, 11/14, 11/21, 12/5, 12/12
To fully understand and immerse in Jewish life -- whether it be prayer services, holiday celebrations, moments of the sacred cycle or life, or anything else -- it is vital to understand where our traditions come from, and how they came to be traditions in the first place. To trace the path of how Judaism as we know it came to be throughout the ages, we will examine our most central pieces of sacred literature: Torah (the Five Books of Moses), Tanakh (the entire Jewish Bible), and beyond (Midrash, Mishna, and Talmud). No prior knowledge is needed -- this course is designed to be your first exposure to these rich works of Jewish literary art.

JEWISH HOLIDAYS
WEDNESDAYS FROM 7-8PM, CANTOR MARGOLIUS
1/8, 1/15, 1/22
The Jewish Holidays provide a spiritual template for the year, guiding our community through seasons of joy, introspection, remembrance, and celebration. This class will explore the most essential holidays with goals of building familiarity along with spiritual awareness and depth.

JEWISH LIFE CYCLES
WEDNESDAYS FROM 7-8PM, RABBI BAUMAN
1/29, 2/5, 2/12
Jewish theology and spirituality manifest powerfully through life cycle observances. Our sessions will explore the sacred moments of birth, marriage, conversion, and death through the lens of liturgy and ritual, focusing on the ways that these elements convey the soul of the Jewish faith family.

JEWISH HISTORY
WEDNESDAYS FROM 7-8PM, DR. JASON GAINES
3/4, 3/11, 3/18, 3/25
Where does Judaism come from? What is the relationship between Judaism and the Hebrew Bible (also called the Tanakh or Old Testament)? Who holds power in Judaism, and where does this authority originate? This course explores the origins of Judaism, from the earliest traditions 3,500 years ago up to the dawn of the rabbinic age. Through the study of religious literature and historical evidence, we will seek to understand the foundations of Judaism.

CHANTING THE TORAH
TUESDAYS FROM 7-8PM, CANTOR MARGOLIUS
1/7, 1/14, 1/21, 1/28, 2/4, 2/11, 3/3, 3/10, 3/17, 3/24, 3/31, 4/7
Experiencing the Torah is one of the most profound spiritual gifts in Jewish life. We hold the Torah, parade it, hear it chanted, and study it. But chanting from a handwritten scroll is an unparalleled experience. In this class you will learn how to understand ta’améi ha’mikra — the trope symbols — and chant the Torah. This class is an essential starting point for those interested in adult bar/bat mitzvah. Prerequisite: ability to sound out Hebrew consonants and vowels.

EXPLORATION OF THE MEGILLOT
TUESDAYS FROM 7-8PM, RABBI SILVERMAN
5/5, 5/12, 5/19
What do you think of when you hear the word “megillah”? Queen Esther? Hamentashen? A cartoon gorilla? All of those answers are correct — but that’s not the whole megillah! Join us for a deep dive into the five (yes, five!) megillot, all of which correspond to a holiday on the Jewish calendar, and all of which encapsulate a small part of the Jewish experience throughout history. We will survey each megillah (scroll) and examine the historical, theological, and philosophical implications that each provides.

SHORT STORIES BY SHOLEM ALEICHEM, PERETZ, AND MALAMUD
THURSDAYS FROM 7-8PM, CANTOR MARGOLIUS
5/7, 5/14, 5/21
The masters of Jewish Literature give deep insight into the Jewish experience of their times. The motifs and tropes they draw upon have been deeply woven into the tapestry of modern Jewish life. In this class, we will examine short stories by Sholem Aleichem, I. L. Peretz, and Bernard Malamud.
JEWISH MEDICAL ETHICS*
SELECT WEDNESDAYS AT 6PM, RABBI BAUMAN
11/13, 1/22, 4/1
Our ongoing series exploring some of the most pressing scientific, social, and health related concerns of our time, through a Jewish lens. Previous topics have included explorations of pain management and the opioid epidemic; political agendas that affect policy in medical care; palliative and supportive care in religious traditions, and the nature of suffering. *This series is designed for but not limited to medical professionals. Reservations are required for dinner.

LAY-LED TORAH STUDY
SATURDAYS FROM 9-10:30AM
Community members gather in our Mautner Learning Center to study the weekly Parashah (Torah Portion). The discussions are led by congregants who extend an open invitation regardless of experience with Hebrew or the Torah. Bagels and coffee are served to accompany the lively and informative discussion on what our ancestors had to say about the stories of the bible.

NEWS AND THE JEWS
SELECT THURSDAYS FROM 12-1, RABBI BAUMAN
12/12, 1/30, 3/26, 5/7
The most pressing news stories of our day challenge us as human beings and as Jews. Each session will focus on a story from the recent news cycle, viewed through a Jewish historical, cultural, and ethical lens. Bring a brown bag lunch, drinks provided, and all are welcome.

TOYRO CHAI SCHOLARS
CELEBRATING A COMMITMENT TO LEARNING
TOYRO CHAI SCHOLAR CEREMONY - FRIDAY, MAY 29, 2020 - 6 PM
The ancient rabbis teach that Talmud Torah, the deep study of our sacred texts and traditions, is such a high mitzvah that there is no fitting reward. Touro Synagogue is enriched and moved by the commitment of those for whom Jewish learning is a passion. There will be a ceremony to honor those community members who participate in 18 hours of Jewish learning or more throughout the year, our Touro Chai Scholars, held on Friday, May 29, 2020.

LEARNING AND LIFECYCLE
EMBRACING JUDAISM: A PATH TO PURSUING CONVERSION
Conversion to Judaism (gerut in Hebrew) is a sacred pathway that many have traveled over thousands of years. The process of embracing Judaism is one that involves cognitive learning, deep self-reflection, community service, congregational participation, and the intentional building of relationship with fellow Jews. Touro Synagogue clergy welcome inquiries about the process of conversion and will consider it an honor to be guides for those who seek to engage in it.

ADULT B’NEI MITZVAH
While many participate in a Bar/Bat Mitzvah service near their thirteenth birthday, standing on the bima to read Torah for the first time is a profound experience at any age. What a blessing it is for the entire community to join in celebration of this achievement! Those interested should contact Cantor Margolius, and participate in the Hebrew Reading (Foundations) and Chanting the Torah (Elevations) classes.
Our year at Religious School is off to a great start! From Opening Day to Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, from Sukkot and Simchat Torah to our final scribing session with Soferet Linda Coppleson, the year has been jam-packed with learning, playing, praying, and fun.

Each week our newest learners dive even deeper into the stories, symbols, and songs of our Jewish tradition, just as our oldest students are continuing on their journeys to B’nei Mitzvah, Confirmation, and beyond. We are also thrilled to see so many of our Confirmation and post-Confirmation students continue coming on Sunday mornings as they transition into their new roles as teachers and Madrichim (teaching assistants).

All registered parents and families are invited to join the Religious School and Uptown Hebrew Facebook group, where you can find more photos from Sundays and Wednesdays, and find out about even more opportunities to learn with- and alongside your kids – at Religious School, Uptown Hebrew, and at home!

Questions regarding Religious School or Uptown Hebrew? Contact Rabbi Silverman at 504-895-4843 or tsilverman@tourosynagogue.com anytime!

Julien Moss Weiner
Son of Margo Moss and Dan Weiner
“It means a lot for me to become Bar Mitzvah. As a Weiner, I am glad to continue the legacy that my family started generations ago, and as a Moss, I’m honored to be the first in recent memory to become Bar Mitzvah. This has been an amazing learning experience for me as I learned to read a new language, and learned to discipline myself in a new way. Having to practice five days a week for over a year. I am glad to have acquired this new skill that I will be able to use for the rest of my life, being able to participate in holding the Torah is an amazing experience I will not take for granted, and as I move forward in life I want to keep these traditions of my ancestors going through what I have learned this year.”

Donovan Jacob Ligier
Son of J.D. Ligier
“Becoming a Bar Mitzvah is more than just becoming a man in the Jewish way of life. It, to me, is assuming a role. This role is important to me and my family. The outcome of my special day is proving to myself that I can continue a process all the way through, from beginning to end. I like learning new prayers and songs. Going to synagogue at the end of the week is refreshing. Even if I’m not going to pray, it’s just a feeling of close community and unison in song that refreshes my body and spirit. I appreciate the synagogue because it has given me another family that has my back.”

- Donovan Jacob Ligier

“Teach each child according to their own way, and they will not swerve from it even in old age.”

THE LIFE AND MUSIC OF HAROLD ROME

JEWISH COMPOSER LECTURE SERIES
PRESENTED BY GEORGE DANSKER
FRIDAY, JANUARY 31 - 7:00PM

Please join us for the 12th installment of our lecture series saluting the great Jewish-American composers of Broadway.

Harold Jacob Rome (1908-1993) worked on 17 Broadway shows during a career that lasted more than three decades. His songs were featured on Billboard and the Hit Parade. He helped discover Barbra Streisand and wrote songs for such great singers as Ezio Pinza, Florence Henderson, and Dolores Gray. Rome was a tireless social activist, and was once referred to as a “Noel Coward with a social conscience.” Harold Rome was also a talented painter.

Together we will discover the deeply melodic music of this great man and learn about his multi-faceted, inspiring life, and his commitment to writing about Jewish culture. We welcome back our superb guest artists Sarah Jane McMahon, Megan Kuckro and Jesse Reeks who will be joined by the splendid voice of our own Cantor Kevin Margolius.

GIVING IS A WAY OF LIFE FOR US
ENSURE STRENGTH IN OUR FUTURE, AND TODAY

THE RABBI DAVID GOLDSTEIN SOCIETY
Anyone giving a cumulative, non-restricted gift of $100,000 or more to the Touro Synagogue Foundation during their lifetime is invited to become a member of the Rabbi David Goldstein Society. Members of the Rabbi David Goldstein Society are honored on the beautiful glass plaque in our main foyer.

For more information or to learn about how your gifts will strengthen our endowment, please contact Kerry Tapia or one of the following Touro Synagogue Foundation Board Members: Phyllis Alltmont, Scott Silbert or Susan Good.

TZEDAKAH SOCIETY
Touro Synagogue is a pillar of our Jewish community and a central gathering place to experience outstanding Jewish education, beautiful and spiritual worship, innovative programming, pastoral guidance and vital acts of community engagement. Touro Synagogue established the Tzedakah Society two years ago to recognize and honor members who, through their planned gifts, have decided to help sustain Touro beyond their lifetime and ensure the future of the Synagogue for generations to come.

A planned gift could be a simple bequest in your will or the designation of Touro Synagogue as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, retirement fund or trust. You can make arrangements for a future gift to Touro Synagogue at any time, without an outlay of funds during your lifetime. To be included in the Tzedakah Society, simply communicate to us that you have, or intend to include the Synagogue in your estate plan. You are not required to disclose anything about the nature of your gift. All gifts are welcome and appreciated regardless of size. For more information about the Tzedakah Society contact Bob Gross, Planned Giving Chair, at robertsgross@gmail.com or Gary Silbert at gsilbert@cox.net.
